

PSFOA February 2024 Meeting Notice

Meeting Topic(s): Ballot Measures and PDC Guidelines

Join us to learn about the in's and out's of the Public Disclosure Commission's (PDC) guidelines for local governments in election campaigns. During this session, we will cover:

- Allowable and prohibited uses of agency facilities in campaigns.
- Allowable and prohibited activities as a local government employee.
- Common scenarios and pitfalls and tips for navigating them.

Speaker: Deanna Gregory, Partner, Pacifica Law Group

Deanna practices municipal finance and general municipal law at Pacifica Law Group, serving as counsel to various public entities, including counties, cities, public utility districts, ports, fire protection districts, public development authorities, public facilities districts, school districts, and state agencies. As part of her practice, Deanna routinely advises public entities on finance and general municipal matters, including elections, governance, open public meetings, public records and disclosure, and other municipal law issues.
